SUBJECT: OSTRICH Case - Situation Report.

30 Nov 44

1. Yesterday Colonel Rothschild and I saw Captain Kleber for the purpose of giving him the latest information on the OSTRICH case, and to tell him that we intended to use him for several contacts. Captain is leaving today for Alsace to locate two explosive dumps indicated by OSTRICH. We have the Captain the addresses of OSTRICH's fiancée, Georgette MULLER, 18 rue Laurent, Mulhouse, and M. MOSER, Maison Rouge near Favorois, (Territoire de Belfort). MOSER is a friend of OSTRICH who is keeping his civilian clothes and 400,000 francs for him.

2. I saw OSTRICH again yesterday to decide whether we might have confidence in sending him to Germany. My opinion is that we can trust him, although there is of course some element of risk.

3. The Case Officer, Rasemotte, went with OSTRICH to contact EBERHARDT at the Fiduciaire Franco-Suisse; EBERHARDT was not there, and they were to go back today.

4. Today I saw Colonel Flever, , Captain Clement and Lieutenant Caron of the Securite Nationale. 24 Boulevard Malesherbes. Colonel Rothschild was with me. This organization is handling the case of MARTIN, whose real name is Raymond RICHARD; this was the man that OSTRICH was told to see first when he got to Paris. We gave them a copy of Colonel Rothschild's report on OSTRICH and they agreed to help us by giving us copies of their interrogations of RICHARD, and permitting us to interrogate him whenever we wished. They have arrested other persons involved in this case, and we may also interrogate them if we wish.

5. Rasemotte and OSTRICH made another call at EBERHARDT's office today, and were informed that he had left on a trip sometime in September, and that he would not be back until sometime in December.

6. They also attempted to contact Mlle. HARTMANN, TONIN's friend, at 42 Quai de Passy, where it was learned she had moved to 44 Quai Louis Bleriot. A check at this address indicated that she had disappeared, but might be found at 21 Bd. d'Angleterre, Vesinet.
